RHODE ISLAND COMMISSIONERS

Came from Jamestown and Spent Yesterday at Westmoreland Club.

WILL BE GREAT EXPOSITION

Commissioner Kingsbury Says Historical Feature Will Appeal to Americans.

The Rhode Island Commissioners to Jamestown were in the city yesterday, stopping at the Westmoreland Club, and expressed themselves as "delighted" with Richmond.

Mr. George N. Kingsbury, executive commissioner, was loud in his praise of Virginia hospitality, which, he said, reminded him of the custom of his own State.
He asserts that the Exposition will be a great success on account of the historical interest that will be manifested, and on account of the novelty of the military and naval features. "People are tired," he said, "of machinery and exhibits of a like nature. They want something new, and the attractions of the Jamestown Exposition will strongly appeal to them."
The commission appointed by His Excellency, George H. Utter, Governor of the State of Rhode Island, to the Jamestown Ter-Centennial Exposition, consisting of Hon. John Taggart Blodgett, Justice of the Supreme Court, its president; Colonel William B. Sheffield, Jr., of Newport, vice-president; Hon.
Joseph P. Burlingame, ex-Speaker of the House of Representatives, as treasurer; Dennis H. Sheehan, of Providence, as secretary, and Hon. George Batchelor, ex-Mayor of Woonsocket, have entered on their work with enthusiasm, and are active in the idea that not only shall the State of Rhode Island be worthily represented, but that the most cordial co-operation will at all times be extended to the Exposition authorities to make the commemoration of the three hundredth anniversary of the first permanent settlement of English-speaking men in America a success.

YOUNG MAN MEETS A TRAGIC DEATH

Falls Backward Out of Hotel Window While With Party of Friends.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
RALEIGH, N. C., July 15.—The remains of William Boylan, Jr., were brought here at 11:45 to-night from Morehead, where he met a tragic death this afternoon by falling from a third floor window in Atlantic Hotel. He and a merry party of young friends were in a room, young Boylan sitting in a window, when he was seen to leap two or three times and fall backwards out of the window to the ground. He gasped several times after assistance reached him, but death resulted in a few minutes. The unfortunate young man was the only son of William Boylan, of this city, was twenty years old, and would have entered on his third year at the University of North Carolina this fall.

EXAMINE CLERKS FOR TUBERCULOSIS

Stringent Order for Segregation of Those Affected with Disease

VERY FEW PEOPLE
WILL OWN DISEASE

Claim in Nearly Every Instance That Trouble is Only of a Bronchial Nature—Clerks
Are Wrought Up Over Existence of the Disease.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.) WASHINGTON, D. C., July 15.—The clerks in government departments in Washington are wrought up over the very general existence of tuberculosis among the employees, and the absolute failure of enforcement of the order issued by President Roosevelt calling for the examination of all clerks suspected of having the terrible disease, and their segregation. If found suffering from the malady. There was much comment and some excitement at the time the order was issued, but these were as nothing compared to the turmoil which has been created by the discovery that it has not been enforced.

The duty of ordering suspects to be examined devolved on the chief of the bureau or divisions in which the suspected clerks are employed. Every man and woman in each department was given a slip of paper, on which were one or two questions, which the recipient was expected to answer. These questions were designed to bring out whether the clerk had tuberculosis.
"Very few people suffering from the disease would acknowledge the fact," claimants, if made to them directly with the disease, and who denies having it. In one or two cases the clerk of a division approached by persons under him, with the request that he order the examination of certain persons believed to be suffering from tuberculosis. The complainant was warned that his complaint would have to be made public, with embarrassing results.

The heads of all the departments have issued an order, however, that such complaints, if made to them directly shall be regarded as confidential, and the medical department will be requested to examine the persons suspected of having tuberculosis.
A notable instance of the dangers incurred by clerks is given by an employee in a certain department. In a small room a number of men and women are at work. The room has but two windows.
Seated at one is a middle-aged woman, who has had the same ailment for years.
She has also suffered from what she terms bronchial trouble for years. By her side, three feet from her, a young woman has sat for more than a year.
She is only nineteen years of age. All the freest air she gets comes through the window by which the older woman sits.

A few days ago the younger woman developed symptoms of tuberculosis. The members of her family, being in the office, and observing the location of her seat, and hearing the hacking cough of the older woman at her right hand, divined the cause of the young woman's trouble.
They called the attention of the chief of the division to the matter, but that official said he was compelled to accept as true the statement of the lady that she was suffering from bronchitis, though he admitted he suspected that she had tuberculosis. He said, however, that a complaint, accompanied by a request that the older woman be examined for tuberculosis, would have to become public, which might result in an embarrassing situation.

Counsel Says.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) PITTSBURGH, PA., July 15.—At last the mother of Evelyn Nesbit Thaw has spoken.
From the day when Harry Thaw shot down Stanford White, Thaw's mother-in-law, Mrs. Evelyn Florence Nesbit-Holman, of this city, has been silent, but to a woman so spirited this silence has been almost a prison.
"My heart bleeds when I think how they have maligned my daughter," Mrs.
Holman said, "but they shall not, dare not, malign me. I am a lone and terrified woman, no longer. I have a husband, thank God, who is a man, and he stands by me and will protect me." While Mrs. Holman made her dramatic personal relation, her husband, Charles J. Holman, stood elbow to elbow with his wife, heartily indorsing all she said.
At Mrs. Holman's elbow, also, was a manly younger, Evelyn Thaw's brother, eighteen years of age, Howard Nesbit Holman.

"I shall prove it to be true—every word my mother has said," this sturdy boy remarked, and as he spoke, involuntarily his fists clenched. Then he stepped closer yet to his mother and put an arm around her.

Denies "Slanders."
"Only God can know how I have suffered," Mrs. Holman exclaimed. "I have tried to be strong; I have tried to be brave; but without my husband's counsel and help I could not have borne the heart pain."
"It has been a frightful thing. No one

YOUNG JACK GORDON RESTS IN HOLLYWOOD

Funeral Service at Holy Trinity Church Yesterday Afternoon Largely Attended.

The last rites over the body of young Mr. Jack Gordon, who was drowned in the river Thursday night, occurred at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon from Holy Trinity Church. Interment was made in Hollywood Cemetery.

Every seat in the large auditorium of the church was filled, for hundreds who had never been acquainted with the young man or his parents were yet filled with a rare sympathy for the bereaved family, and showed it mutely by their presence in the church. The coffin was strewn with a profusion of white flowers, for there was no lack of tender hands and loving hearts to perform these few services for the dead.

The funeral was conducted according to the rites of the Episcopal Church by Rev.
J. J. Gravatt, rector of Holy Trinity.
The pall-bearers consisted of the young friends of the dead youth, most of them having been with him on the night of the accident. After the services in the church, the funeral cortege moved out to Hollywood, where the body was laid to its last rest.

LONDON, July 15.—A dispatch to a news agency from St. Petersburg says that General Kizlov, of the headquarters staff, was murdered in the park at Peterhof Saturday. His assailant used a revolver. Three shots fired were all effective. The murderer was a well-dressed man. He has been arrested, but not identified. This case is regarded as mysterious, as General Kizlov was not connected with any political agitation.
The murderer, who is believed to be a social revolutionist, carried a photograph, at which he gazed attentively, before firing, as if comparing with General Kizlov. It was a photograph of General Trepoff.

Great Surprise.
(By Associated Press.)

ST. PETERSBURG, July 15.—The council of the Empire's acceptance, without amendment, on Saturday of Parliament's bill appropriating $7,500,000 for famine relief, came as a surprise, but has occasioned the greatest jubilation in the camp of the lower house, as it is regarded as a vote of lack of confidence in the Gorkykh ministry on the part of the upper chamber.
While many of the speakers in the council of the empire really favored adoption of the Cabinet's recommendations, they recognized that would be a fatal mistake for the council to antagonize the lower house in the present crisis.
Moreover, those on the inside who were aware that the negotiations between the government and the constitutional democrats were entering the final stage, naturally were influenced by coming events.
According to to-night's reports, all the questions of principle involved in a change of the ministry have been resolved, and now it is merely a matter of personalities.
The Emperor is still objecting to certain names proposed by the constitutional democrats.

Strike Spreading.
Admiral Skrydloff probably will succeed the late Vice-Admiral Choukhin, commander of the Black Sea fleet.

The Agrarian Commission of the lower house in deference to the firm protest of the Group of Toil has rejected the proposal of M. Kullerovskiy, of Saratov, to place in the Agrarian bill a provision exempting from expropriation land and stock companies and lands, like vineyards, fruit orchards, etc., under special cultivation.

apply only to the home market for funds tion.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WILMINGTON, DEL., July 15.—Representative Timothy E. Townsend, of Townsend, Sussex county, a prominent Republican member of the Delaware Legislature, owes his life to the action of his twelve-year-old son, in reflecting a bright milk pail in the eyes of an infuriated bull that attacked and gored him. The legislator was attacked by the bull in the middle of a large field. He was severely gored, and was being dangerously trampled, when his little son, Fred, saw his peril. The boy seized a milk pail and rushed to his father's rescue. As the sun was shining brightly the pail proved more effective than a gun or piteous cry. The reflection made it look to the bull like a ball of fire. The animal immediately became terror stricken, and actually ran from the enclosure. Mr. Townsend will recover.

Copenhagen correspondent says that a motor car conveying an American millionaire named Angola, his wife and a party of friends, collided with a two-horse vehicle Saturday at Skorby Hill, gers were seriously injured, the horses were killed and the motor car was

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., July 15.—President and Mrs. Roosevelt attended service this morning at Christ Church, in accompany with their usual custom. The service was conducted by the Rev. Dr. Upjohn, of Pleasant Valley.
Mrs. A. L. Esac, who has made frequent visits to Oyster Bay for the purpose of obtaining an interview with Mrs.
Roosevelt, went to the church and demanded that she be shown to a seat immediately behind the presidential pew.
This was refused and she was taken to a seat on the opposite side of the aisle, where she remained for a short time, and then went outside, where she waited until the President drove away. She made no attempt to approach the carriage.

ATTACK JAIL AT NIGHT

But Sheriff, Anticipating Trou-

There.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SALISBURY, N. C., July 15.—Late last night Coroner Dorsett held an inquest over the remains of the four victims of the family of Isaac Lysterly, who were murdered near this city early yesterday morning. The verdict reached was that Isaac Lysterly, Mrs. Augusta Lysterly, and two of their children, John and Alice, were murdered by blows in the head from an axe in the hands of Nense Gillespie, John Gillespie, Jack Dillingham and his wife, George Erwin and Henry Lee.

Murderer Confessed.

Simultaneously with the verdict came a full confession of the terrible crime by Henry Gillespie and the six negroes above named, all of whom were tenants on the Lysterly farm. Henry was at the scene of murder all day and mingled with the crowd until night, when he became frightened and confessed.

He told how the plot was laid, the house entered while all its occupants were asleep, and how Nense Gillespie and son murdered Lysterly and his wife and John Lysterly, and with the same axe crushed the skull of little Alice, who died twelve hours later. Gillespie also confessed to firing the bed upon which the dead bodies were left, and told where the deadly blow was made.
In each case the death blow was made while the victim was asleep. All of the negroes implicated were arrested and jailed here.

Mob Storms the Jail.

Late in the night the jail was stormed by about two thousand infuriated citizens, bent on a wholesale lynching. Sheriff Julian had anticipated this sort of trouble, and had spirited all the prisoners to Mecklenburg jail, at Charlotte, for safe-keeping.
The mob around the jail surged and yelled for hours, demanding of the officers a surrender of the seven murderers.
The presence of the militia had a salutary effect. A committee of fifteen representatives of the mob were permitted to search the jail after the prisoners had been removed. Mayor Boyden, of Salisbury, addressed the would-be lynchers, and serious violence was averted.
The four murdered victims were buried together this afternoon at Unley, Rowan
